MEDICINAL. THE PRISONER

Who escapes from jail is by no means free. He is under the ban of the law and punishment is written over against his name. Soon or late he will be caught again and bear added punishment for his short escape from his cell.

Those who by the use of palliative powders and tablets escape for a time from the sufferings of dyspepsia are in the same condition as the escaped prisoner. Soon or late they will go back to the old condition and pay an added penalty for temporary release.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia and other diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Its cures are lasting.

"For about two years I suffered from a very obstinate case of dyspepsia," writes R. E. Record, Esq., of 13 Eastern Ave., Toronto, Ontario. "I tried a great number of remedies without success. I finally lost faith in them all. I was so far gone that I could not eat any solid food on my stomach for a long time. I felt melancholy and depressed. Could not sleep or follow my occupation (ministry). Some four months ago a friend recommended your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' After a week's treatment I had derived so much benefit that I continued the medicine. I have taken three bottles and am convinced it has in my case accomplished a permanent cure. I can conscientiously recommend it to the thousands of dyspeptics throughout the land."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets stimulate the liver.

A REIGN OF TERROR.

Sheriff Schadt, of Lackawanna county, Pa., last night at 7:30 o'clock telegraphed Governor Stone to send troops to his assistance. The Thirteenth Regiment has been ordered out.

The sheriff had just given to the newspaper men a proclamation announcing he would call troops if the lawlessness did not cease, when he received a series of telephone calls to quell disturbances up the valley. He found on investigation that the situation was such that he could not cope with it and sent a call for troops. Adjutant General Stewart called the sheriff by phone at 9 o'clock and had a long conference with him. The adjutant general suggested that a posse of members of the Citizens Alliance be called upon for assistance.

While the sheriff was preparing to act on this suggestion, he received more reports of violence up and down the valley and at once sent another urgent telegram to the governor calling for immediate assistance.

The worst of last night's outbreaks occurred at Archland. A crowd of 200 strikers, mostly foreign, ransacked the quarters occupied by the 40 men employed at the Raymond washery of the Ontario and Western Company while the men were at work, and returning drove them back to the refuge of the washery. The mob then returned to the colliery proper, drove out the engineers, firemen, pumpmen and guards and took possession of the breaker. The plant of the Crescent Electric Light Company, which is supplied with steam from the breakers had to shut down and the whole region around was left in darkness. In the attack on the breaker two men were shot—one a striker and the other a workman.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Miles McAndrew was attacked and shot at by a mob at Olyphant. The steam pipes of the Pennsylvania Coal Company's colliery at Old Forge were blown up with dynamite last night. Two colored cooks at the William A. colliery were rescued by deputy sheriffs from a crowd that was threatening to lynch them.

Shenandoah was in a state of excitement for several hours yesterday afternoon. Sheriff Boddall and half a dozen deputies arrived in town about 1 o'clock and attempted to arrest the strikers who have been taking coal from the mine breaches on the Girard estate. The men resisted arrest, and the sheriff appealed to General Gobin for assistance. The General ordered the Second City Troop to the scene to protect the Sheriff in the discharge of his duties.

Meantime a mob of about 5,000 people had gathered in the vicinity of the breakers. With the protection which the presence of the troops afforded the sheriff's men arrested three colpickers, but the rest succeeded in escaping. The prisoners were taken to the Pennsylvania Railroad station surrounded by troops and followed by the mob, hissing and jeering.

About the time they were passing General Gobin's headquarters the First Battalion of the Twelfth Regiment came dashing up the street with Colonel Clements at their head. As the battalion approached the mob it formed in company front, and the crowd scattered in every direction.

It was the intention to take the prisoners to the jail at Pottsville, but while they were at the station the strike leaders procured bail for them and they were released.

MYSTERIOUS TRAGEDY.
The colliery village of North Walbottle, about six miles west of Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, was on Sunday night the scene of a mysterious love tragedy, the victims being a young woman named Jane Abellwhite, scarcely 17 years of age, and her sweetheart, Thomas Jobling, aged 27, who was a laborer at the neighboring colliery of Throckley. Before going to work there he was employed for three years at North Walbottle, and lodged with the parents of Miss Abellwhite. He conceived a great affection for the girl, and they were regarded as an engaged couple. On Sunday afternoon he had tea with her at her parents' house, and afterward the couple went out for a walk, and were noticed crossing a field to a stile, where they rested. This was about nine o'clock, and they were never seen together again. Half an hour later Jobling presented himself at the colliery and asked for the girl's father, who is employed there as engineman. Mr. Abellwhite had not then arrived, on learning which Jobling, watching his opportunity, opened the doors at the top of the shaft and deliberately leaped down, the depth being 540 feet. His body was found at the bottom terribly mutilated. Anxiety was then felt for the girl, who had not returned home, and search parties finally came across her body in a brook which runs through a field near the village. She was lying with her face in the water, and had evidently been strangled, as Jobling's white cotton handkerchief was tied tightly around her neck. There were marks of blows on her face and arms, her hat was lying near and Jobling's collar and scarf were a short distance away. The poor girl appears to have been murdered near the spot where they were last seen, her body being dragged about 100 yards to where it was found. No motive can be assigned for the crime, as the lovers were apparently on the best of terms.

ANOTHER NEW YORK MURDER MYSTERY.—The body of Mary Gruner, a dressmaker, 20 years old, was found in her room in west Forty-eighth street, New York, yesterday afternoon. The woman's lower lip was badly swollen. The police thought the woman's death required investigation and detectives were assigned to the case. Miss Gruner went to New York about 10 days ago from Salt Lake City. In her room were dresses and jewelry the value of about $1,000. Coroner Jackson, after a superficial examination, said he thought it probable from the position of her body when found and the condition of her mouth and tongue that Miss Gruner had been strangled to death. On the mantel in the woman's room the coroner found a quantity of cigar ashes. There was found, also, a newspaper clipping announcing the marriage of Fred T. McGavin and Estelle Crystal, at Colorado Springs. A further search disclosed a torn store bill which, on being fitted together, showed it had been made out to Miss Gruner by Roy Watson, 67 east Third street, Salt Lake City. It was for $6.75 for lettering a box. There was also part of a bill from Dr. S. Sichel, of Salt Lake City.

When a purgative is required take something mild and gentle like Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Richard Gibson, Druggist.
